

WEEKLY EPITAPH.

REPPY &amp; PECK, Publishers.

Fourth Street, Bet. Fremont and Allen
Tombstone, Cochise County, Arizona.

Subscription, one year.....$4.00

Entered in the Tombstone postoffice as second class matter.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF COCHISE COUNTY

Mr. Ritter's paper does not deny that it is Mr. Ritter's paper. He is evidently proud of it.

Enterprising real estate men in Southern California are cutting up printing office towels into lots and offering them for $1000 each. Great country.

The EPITAPH is more widely copied and generally read than any paper published in Arizona. Besides, it has a greater circulation than all the papers in Cochise county combined.

The EPITAPH acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary invitation to attend the fourth annual fair of the Arizona Industrial Exposition Association, which is to be held in Phoenix, during the week commencing October 17th.

The Governor's proclamation, ordering a ninety-day quarantine on cattle from Mexico, is now in effect. While the cattle in our sister republic are as free from disease as our own, the intention evidently is to prevent shipments from infected districts through their territory.

The Tucson people are hugging the fond delusion that the Santa Fe people will bring the Mineral Belt road to the ancient and honorable pueblo. They might as well disabuse their minds of the idea, for Benson is the objective point. A northern connection the Sonora road must have.

The EPITAPH is the legitimate successor to the Nugget, Union, Republican, Independent, Record, Maverick, Democrat and Daily Tombstone, and it is only a question of a very short time until the scalp of our esteemed though misguided contemporary will be seen dangling from our belt. Bring on another horse, as they say in the circus.

Our esteemed contemporary says the EPITAPH owes an apology to the Board of Supervisors, the Tortilla Mining Company, and the bums, beats and affidavits men of this community. We are surprised that our e. c. should place its friends in such disreputable company, but it can rest assured that when we apologize to one we shall apologize to all.

The San Bernardino Index complains thus:

Oh! the dust, the horrible stifling dust. On D street north of Fifth, and on E street, north of Fourth, the dust is a foot deep.

How different it is here in Arizona, where land is not quite so valuable. There has not been enough dust in Cochise county in the past two months for a hen to take a bath in. Come to the rain-kissed land and enjoy life.

The Wichita Kansas Eagle says: "One thousand copies of a respectable newspaper printed in a town, and sent out, will do more good than ten million circulars. We do not mean a regular pictorial boom advertisement paper, that is a give-away on its face, but the regular paper setting forth in a thoughtful and attractive way the advantages of the town, and showing in its advertising columns that it has a live, energetic set of business men."

The report put in circulation by our injudicious contemporary, that the citizens of Tombstone intend to take the law regarding land titles into their own hands has not a shadow of foundation in fact, and is a slander upon our people, who are law-abiding in the extreme. Where one man could be found to join a mob of that description there would be twenty to put it down. Mob-law in Tombstone is played out. Those papers which have been so industriously circulating the slander will please copy.

The accident which befell General Miles in Los Angeles last Tuesday will prevent his attendance at the sword presentation announced for Monday next, in Tucson, and the event will be postponed. A carriage containing the General and party while crossing the railroad just outside town, was overturned, and General Miles had the ankle bone of his right leg broken, besides sustaining severe bruises. He was removed to the Arcadia hotel. The team ran away after the accident and one of the horses was badly injured. General Miles' injuries will keep him in bed for some time.

The pitiful whine indulged in by our esteemed daily contemporary on last Tuesday morning excites our sincerest sympathy. It says:

"It strikes us as a somewhat singular state of affairs that some advertisers should prefer patronizing a weekly newspaper, to the exclusion of a daily, which is published six times a week."

Strange as it may appear, that state of affairs does not appear at all singular to the EPITAPH, which is published on a plain business proposition, as often as it can afford to be and pay its way. Under the present depressed condition of affairs the people of this community do not care to be taxed to support a daily newspaper. They know there is no field here for a daily paper such as would be a credit to the town; one taking full press reports, and otherwise bearing evidence of a prosperous condition of business. A daily without such concomitants is a misnomer, and they know it. For general news they subscribe for San Francisco dailies, while for the local and mining news they are content to wait for the reliable old EPITAPH, which has always kept abreast of the times. When our contemporary learns that a nonpareil paper in a small town has never yet been made a success, it will drop into the groove for which it is peculiarly fitted. It will have a bank account, pay its bills on presentation, and possess the happy, joyous condition which the EPITAPH experiences.

THE LAW ON THE CASE.

Tilden adopts his old tactics in commenting upon the words of wisdom propounded in the last issue of the EPITAPH. It has taken him a week, and yet, except for certain short, garbled extracts, he has failed to make any reply. He should come down to the main points at issue and if possible exhibit some sort of defense for his proteges. The question now before the people is, whether or not the Board of Supervisors have complied with the law in the matter of allowing bills against the county which have already been paid, whether a county officer has a right to make a demand against the county for money due for other than his official services, and, furthermore, whether the Board have a right to evade the law by neglecting to record their votes on questions that come before them. The EPITAPH charges them with a gross violation of the law in each one of these respects. It has not stooped to misrepresentation nor vilification, nor does it intend to ever adopt such a policy. It will not try to get even with a man by "making faces at his sister," nor will it carry personal grievances into its columns at all; but as the Great Grover remarked, "a public office is a public trust," and we are a firm believer in the right, and shall insist upon that right, to comment upon the official acts of any man who has accepted such a trust, either by appointment or election. If he fulfills the Jeffersonian requirements of capability and honesty, he will not object to such a censorship; but if he is corrupt and incapable, he will make faces and kick. And no surer evidence of the Ethiopian in the fuel pile can be found than when an officer makes a personal matter out of legitimate comment.

For the information of the parties most interested—that is, the taxpayers—we here reproduce the sections of law which we claim the Board of Supervisors have violated:

Section 30, Chap. 2. No demand on the County Treasury wherein any county officer shall be personally interested, or arising out of any contract wherein any county officer shall at any time while in office have been a party or otherwise personally interested, shall be approved, allowed or paid, but every such contract, claim or demand is hereby declared null and void, except for official compensation of the persons in whose name it is presented.

Sec. 31. Every officer, including each Supervisor, who shall draw an unauthorized warrant, claim or demand upon any County Treasury in this Territory, contrary to or without the authority of law, shall be liable to the county upon his official bond personally, and for the amount thus directly paid out or disbursed on such warrant, claim or demand, and the same may be recovered by an action against the person or persons so liable therefor, jointly or severally. It shall be the duty of the District Attorney of the county to see that suit is brought in the proper cases for the enforcement of the provisions of this section. THE VOTE OF EACH SUPERVISOR UPON EVERY QUESTION, ORDER, OR MATTER, ACTED ON BY THEM SHALL BE RECORDED IN THE MINUTES OF THE BOARD.

A turf gambler tells, in the Globe Democrat, how more than $250,000 could have been won on an investment of $10 in one day at Saratoga. In the first race the odds against Mattie Lauraine were 10 to 1. By placing your $10 on Mattie at these figures you would have had $110 when the race was over. In the next race Miss Motley, who won, was another 10 to 1 chance. Had you put your $110 on Miss Motley you then would have had $1210. In the Iroquois stakes bookmakers placed 20 to 1 against Branzomarte, who defeated Goliath, the favorite. Your winning up to this stage had been on the Branzomarte would have been increased to $25,440. Warrenton who won the steeple-chase was another 10 to 1 shot. Twenty-five thousand and four hundred and forty dollars on Warrenton would have brought your total winnings on the four races up to $279,513.

The Train Robbers.

The Southwest Sentinel, published at Silver City, N. M., gives the following additional particulars regarding the arrest of the supposed train robbers:

A rumor was current on the streets here Saturday evening that the men who robbed the Southern Pacific train near Pantano, Arizona, had been caught and that $90,000 was recovered. The rumor was discredited by many at the time, and turns out to be without foundation. Sheriff Slaughter of Cochise county Arizona, arrested four men at Stein's Pass in this county, but the whereabouts of the men arrested can be proven on the night of the robbery. The men arrested were Red Larry, Jimmie Hugh s, Dick Johnson and Bob Williams. Sheriff Laird was at Stein's Pass some days since, in company with Sheriff Slaughter, and these men were there at that time, and appeared to be suspicious that they were going to be arrested. Slaughter came to Deming with Sheriff Laird, but determined to return and arrest the parties. Out of these arrests originated the rumor that Reneke, the man who robbed the Georgetown stage last year, and two accomplices had been arrested and that $90,000 was recovered from them. The train robbers have not yet been caught, and there is little probability that they will be.

Murder at Nogales.

Leandro Coronel, a Mexican policeman, was murdered at 11 o'clock on Wednesday evening at Nogales by Augustin Escudero, while sitting on a chair at the depot on this side of the line. It seems that Escudero and Coronel had had trouble early in the evening over a woman, and at that time the latter had struck Escudero with a rock. Escudero had hunted up a revolver and went over to the depot where he found Coronel sitting on a chair. Hot words passed between them when suddenly Escudero pulled his revolver and fired, the ball taking effect in the left breast of the Coronel and passing in a slanting direction lodged near the skin in his back, killing him almost instantly. After Escudero fired the shot he ran across the line but was captured and after a preliminary hearing, which was given him in the night, was held for murder and was lodged in jail. The remains of Coronel were taken to the same place in plain view of the man who had committed the murder. The Mexican authorities think it beyond their province to prosecute Escudero as the murder occurred this side of the line but will first make a test case of it and failing, will hand the prisoner over to the Pima county officers.—Star.
